

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

EDITORIAL STAFF
 Editor-in-Chief, Otis Vinson.
 Assistant Editor, Bill Crews.
 Personal Reporter, Margaret Dosch.
 Feature Reporter, Margaret Hooker.
 Sport Editor, Getha Smith and Stuart Spooner.
 Junior Reporter, Dorothy Howell.
 Sophomore Reporter, Mollie Maloy.
 Freshman Reporter, Francis Howell.
 Manager, Louper Houston.

PERSONALS

Joe Parker.
 Mary Baker spent Sunday in West Palm Beach visiting friends.
 Orelia Smith spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.
 Orelia Thompson spent Saturday in Port Richey.
 Genevieve Brown spent Sunday in Cleveland.
 Otis Vinson spent Sunday in Cleveland.
 Everett Forbes spent Sunday in Port City visiting friends.
 John Padgett and Louise Guld spent Sunday in Hungary's Land looking at the opening sea.
 Melvin Herring spent Sunday in Oklawaha.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bishop attended the F. S. C. W. annual banquet in West Palm Beach Thursday evening.

Margie Cochran spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.
 Edith Willis attended a picnic in LaBelle Sunday.
 Bill Howell spent Sunday in Oklawaha.

Elizabeth and Vernette Stuckey spent Saturday in West Palm Beach visiting friends.
 Louper Houston, Odel Pugh and George Crawford spent Saturday in West Palm Beach getting police uniforms.

FEATURES

Margaret Hooker.
 Work! Seniors! Work!

One can rightfully say that any student in the graduating class of Pahokee high school has spring fever.
 Portion of its members have been laboring diligently for the past four weeks on the Senior Class play that will be presented Thursday night. Eight others have been working to secure advertisements for places of business for the play programs. The others have been selling tickets for the play.
 Some of the students are making up their credits from non-credited courses, others are studying for six subjects in order that they may be able to march proudly up to the front of the auditorium June 5 and receive their diplomas.

Vernette Stuckey. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stuckey, is a native of Florida.

She has been a student of Pahokee high school for the past two years and is a member of this year's graduation class.

She has traveled extensively in the United States, having visited almost all of the forty-eight states and also in Canada and Cuba.

Vernette intends to major in dietetics in college.

Those knowing Vernette all find her a very friendly person of the linguistic type.

Strange As It Seems
 Hired and Margie are wearing their class pins.

Walton Bragg was not elected King of the May.

John Padgett and Leon Spooner have ceased telling falsehoods.

Larkin found his shoe behind the door in the agriculture room.

Allice Willis attended Senior play phonics as well as Rupert Moore.

Margaret Hooker didn't attend the dance in Pahokee Tuesday night.

The rough-like stain on Stewart's collar was from a tie.

JUNIOR CLASS
 Dot Hooker.

Marion Case, a member of the Junior Class, is going to West Palm Beach as soon as six weeks tests are over. We wish Marion very much and hope she will be able to join our Senior Class next fall.

Mary Louise Honshel spent Monday in Miami.

Allice Willis was absent from our class last week on account of illness.

Willard Aron, Julian Chandler, Bill Crews, Larkin, and Mary Louise Honshel, Beth Dane and Dorothy Howell attended the barbeque banquet Friday morning.

Annie Merle Maloy visited our class Monday morning.

Allice Willis spent the day in LaBelle Sunday.

SOPHOMORES
 We are glad to have our teacher, Mr. Chatter, back with us, following the recent death of one of his family.

Mrs. Spear submitted Monday during the absence of Mr. Chatter. The Sophomores have charge of the chapel program this week and are hoping everyone will enjoy it. The class, as a whole, is sorry to hear that one of their most popular members, Ruth Honshel, is going to leave them. She is making her home in Florida City.

CANAL POINT SCHOOL

FRESHMEN
 Frances Howell.

The Freshmen voted for May King and queen last Wednesday. Marie Cochran and Leon Spooner were selected by the Freshmen. Those absent this past week were Virginia Honshel and Paul Poole.

SPORTS
 Gennette.

The sport of this week seemed to be "politicking" for the May queen and king. Of course all of the candidates couldn't win, but Bragg didn't win, as we expected.

During gym period on Monday, a few (16) of the girls played diamond ball. The girls on Lucile Herring's side consisted of "Pete" Thompson and Ethel Vinson. Getha Smith's side consisted of Beth Dane and Jewel Vinson.

When the one-knocked, Betty, she couldn't make more than a home run, so we "just didn't notice it."

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop attended the F. S. C. W. annual banquet in West Palm Beach Thursday evening.

Margie Cochran spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.

Edith Willis attended a picnic in LaBelle Sunday.

Bill Howell spent Sunday in Oklawaha.

Elizabeth and Vernette Stuckey spent Saturday in West Palm Beach visiting friends.

Louper Houston, Odel Pugh and George Crawford spent Saturday in West Palm Beach getting police uniforms.

Margaret Hooker.
 Work! Seniors! Work!

One can rightfully say that any student in the graduating class of Pahokee high school has spring fever.

Portion of its members have been laboring diligently for the past four weeks on the Senior Class play that will be presented Thursday night. Eight others have been working to secure advertisements for places of business for the play programs. The others have been selling tickets for the play.

Some of the students are making up their credits from non-credited courses, others are studying for six subjects in order that they may be able to march proudly up to the front of the auditorium June 5 and receive their diplomas.

Vernette Stuckey. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stuckey, is a native of Florida.

She has been a student of Pahokee high school for the past two years and is a member of this year's graduation class.

She has traveled extensively in the United States, having visited almost all of the forty-eight states and also in Canada and Cuba.

Vernette intends to major in dietetics in college.

Those knowing Vernette all find her a very friendly person of the linguistic type.

Strange As It Seems
 Hired and Margie are wearing their class pins.

Walton Bragg was not elected King of the May.

John Padgett and Leon Spooner have ceased telling falsehoods.

Larkin found his shoe behind the door in the agriculture room.

Allice Willis attended Senior play phonics as well as Rupert Moore.

Margaret Hooker didn't attend the dance in Pahokee Tuesday night.

The rough-like stain on Stewart's collar was from a tie.

JUNIOR CLASS
 Dot Hooker.

Marion Case, a member of the Junior Class, is going to West Palm Beach as soon as six weeks tests are over. We wish Marion very much and hope she will be able to join our Senior Class next fall.

Mary Louise Honshel spent Monday in Miami.

Allice Willis was absent from our class last week on account of illness.

Willard Aron, Julian Chandler, Bill Crews, Larkin, and Mary Louise Honshel, Beth Dane and Dorothy Howell attended the barbeque banquet Friday morning.

Annie Merle Maloy visited our class Monday morning.

Allice Willis spent the day in LaBelle Sunday.

SOPHOMORES
 We are glad to have our teacher, Mr. Chatter, back with us, following the recent death of one of his family.

Mrs. Spear submitted Monday during the absence of Mr. Chatter. The Sophomores have charge of the chapel program this week and are hoping everyone will enjoy it. The class, as a whole, is sorry to hear that one of their most popular members, Ruth Honshel, is going to leave them. She is making her home in Florida City.

CANAL POINT SCHOOL

FRESHMEN
 Frances Howell.

The Freshmen voted for May King and queen last Wednesday. Marie Cochran and Leon Spooner were selected by the Freshmen. Those absent this past week were Virginia Honshel and Paul Poole.

SPORTS
 Gennette.

The sport of this week seemed to be "politicking" for the May queen and king. Of course all of the candidates couldn't win, but Bragg didn't win, as we expected.

During gym period on Monday, a few (16) of the girls played diamond ball. The girls on Lucile Herring's side consisted of "Pete" Thompson and Ethel Vinson. Getha Smith's side consisted of Beth Dane and Jewel Vinson.

When the one-knocked, Betty, she couldn't make more than a home run, so we "just didn't notice it."

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop attended the F. S. C. W. annual banquet in West Palm Beach Thursday evening.

Margie Cochran spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.

Edith Willis attended a picnic in LaBelle Sunday.

Bill Howell spent Sunday in Oklawaha.

Elizabeth and Vernette Stuckey spent Saturday in West Palm Beach visiting friends.

Louper Houston, Odel Pugh and George Crawford spent Saturday in West Palm Beach getting police uniforms.

Margaret Hooker.
 Work! Seniors! Work!

One can rightfully say that any student in the graduating class of Pahokee high school has spring fever.

Portion of its members have been laboring diligently for the past four weeks on the Senior Class play that will be presented Thursday night. Eight others have been working to secure advertisements for places of business for the play programs. The others have been selling tickets for the play.

Some of the students are making up their credits from non-credited courses, others are studying for six subjects in order that they may be able to march proudly up to the front of the auditorium June 5 and receive their diplomas.

Vernette Stuckey. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stuckey, is a native of Florida.

She has been a student of Pahokee high school for the past two years and is a member of this year's graduation class.

She has traveled extensively in the United States, having visited almost all of the forty-eight states and also in Canada and Cuba.

Vernette intends to major in dietetics in college.

Those knowing Vernette all find her a very friendly person of the linguistic type.

Strange As It Seems
 Hired and Margie are wearing their class pins.

Walton Bragg was not elected King of the May.

John Padgett and Leon Spooner have ceased telling falsehoods.

Larkin found his shoe behind the door in the agriculture room.

Allice Willis attended Senior play phonics as well as Rupert Moore.

Margaret Hooker didn't attend the dance in Pahokee Tuesday night.

The rough-like stain on Stewart's collar was from a tie.

JUNIOR CLASS
 Dot Hooker.

Marion Case, a member of the Junior Class, is going to West Palm Beach as soon as six weeks tests are over. We wish Marion very much and hope she will be able to join our Senior Class next fall.

Mary Louise Honshel spent Monday in Miami.

Allice Willis was absent from our class last week on account of illness.

Willard Aron, Julian Chandler, Bill Crews, Larkin, and Mary Louise Honshel, Beth Dane and Dorothy Howell attended the barbeque banquet Friday morning.

Annie Merle Maloy visited our class Monday morning.

Allice Willis spent the day in LaBelle Sunday.

SOPHOMORES
 We are glad to have our teacher, Mr. Chatter, back with us, following the recent death of one of his family.

Mrs. Spear submitted Monday during the absence of Mr. Chatter. The Sophomores have charge of the chapel program this week and are hoping everyone will enjoy it. The class, as a whole, is sorry to hear that one of their most popular members, Ruth Honshel, is going to leave them. She is making her home in Florida City.

CANAL POINT SCHOOL

FRESHMEN
 Frances Howell.

The Freshmen voted for May King and queen last Wednesday. Marie Cochran and Leon Spooner were selected by the Freshmen. Those absent this past week were Virginia Honshel and Paul Poole.

SPORTS
 Gennette.

The sport of this week seemed to be "politicking" for the May queen and king. Of course all of the candidates couldn't win, but Bragg didn't win, as we expected.

During gym period on Monday, a few (16) of the girls played diamond ball. The girls on Lucile Herring's side consisted of "Pete" Thompson and Ethel Vinson. Getha Smith's side consisted of Beth Dane and Jewel Vinson.

When the one-knocked, Betty, she couldn't make more than a home run, so we "just didn't notice it."

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop attended the F. S. C. W. annual banquet in West Palm Beach Thursday evening.

Margie Cochran spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.

Edith Willis attended a picnic in LaBelle Sunday.

Bill Howell spent Sunday in Oklawaha.

Elizabeth and Vernette Stuckey spent Saturday in West Palm Beach visiting friends.

Louper Houston, Odel Pugh and George Crawford spent Saturday in West Palm Beach getting police uniforms.

Margaret Hooker.
 Work! Seniors! Work!

One can rightfully say that any student in the graduating class of Pahokee high school has spring fever.

Portion of its members have been laboring diligently for the past four weeks on the Senior Class play that will be presented Thursday night. Eight others have been working to secure advertisements for places of business for the play programs. The others have been selling tickets for the play.

Some of the students are making up their credits from non-credited courses, others are studying for six subjects in order that they may be able to march proudly up to the front of the auditorium June 5 and receive their diplomas.

Vernette Stuckey. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stuckey, is a native of Florida.

She has been a student of Pahokee high school for the past two years and is a member of this year's graduation class.

She has traveled extensively in the United States, having visited almost all of the forty-eight states and also in Canada and Cuba.

Vernette intends to major in dietetics in college.

Those knowing Vernette all find her a very friendly person of the linguistic type.

Strange As It Seems
 Hired and Margie are wearing their class pins.

Walton Bragg was not elected King of the May.

John Padgett and Leon Spooner have ceased telling falsehoods.

Larkin found his shoe behind the door in the agriculture room.

Allice Willis attended Senior play phonics as well as Rupert Moore.

Margaret Hooker didn't attend the dance in Pahokee Tuesday night.

The rough-like stain on Stewart's collar was from a tie.

JUNIOR CLASS
 Dot Hooker.

Marion Case, a member of the Junior Class, is going to West Palm Beach as soon as six weeks tests are over. We wish Marion very much and hope she will be able to join our Senior Class next fall.

Mary Louise Honshel spent Monday in Miami.

Allice Willis was absent from our class last week on account of illness.

Willard Aron, Julian Chandler, Bill Crews, Larkin, and Mary Louise Honshel, Beth Dane and Dorothy Howell attended the barbeque banquet Friday morning.

Annie Merle Maloy visited our class Monday morning.

Allice Willis spent the day in LaBelle Sunday.

SOPHOMORES
 We are glad to have our teacher, Mr. Chatter, back with us, following the recent death of one of his family.

Mrs. Spear submitted Monday during the absence of Mr. Chatter. The Sophomores have charge of the chapel program this week and are hoping everyone will enjoy it. The class, as a whole, is sorry to hear that one of their most popular members, Ruth Honshel, is going to leave them. She is making her home in Florida City.

CANAL POINT SCHOOL

FRESHMEN
 Frances Howell.

The Freshmen voted for May King and queen last Wednesday. Marie Cochran and Leon Spooner were selected by the Freshmen. Those absent this past week were Virginia Honshel and Paul Poole.

SPORTS
 Gennette.

The sport of this week seemed to be "politicking" for the May queen and king. Of course all of the candidates couldn't win, but Bragg didn't win, as we expected.

During gym period on Monday, a few (16) of the girls played diamond ball. The girls on Lucile Herring's side consisted of "Pete" Thompson and Ethel Vinson. Getha Smith's side consisted of Beth Dane and Jewel Vinson.

When the one-knocked, Betty, she couldn't make more than a home run, so we "just didn't notice it."

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop attended the F. S. C. W. annual banquet in West Palm Beach Thursday evening.

Margie Cochran spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.

Edith Willis attended a picnic in LaBelle Sunday.

Bill Howell spent Sunday in Oklawaha.

Elizabeth and Vernette Stuckey spent Saturday in West Palm Beach visiting friends.

Louper Houston, Odel Pugh and George Crawford spent Saturday in West Palm Beach getting police uniforms.

Margaret Hooker.
 Work! Seniors! Work!

One can rightfully say that any student in the graduating class of Pahokee high school has spring fever.

Portion of its members have been laboring diligently for the past four weeks on the Senior Class play that will be presented Thursday night. Eight others have been working to secure advertisements for places of business for the play programs. The others have been selling tickets for the play.

Some of the students are making up their credits from non-credited courses, others are studying for six subjects in order that they may be able to march proudly up to the front of the auditorium June 5 and receive their diplomas.

Vernette Stuckey. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stuckey, is a native of Florida.

She has been a student of Pahokee high school for the past two years and is a member of this year's graduation class.

She has traveled extensively in the United States, having visited almost all of the forty-eight states and also in Canada and Cuba.

Vernette intends to major in dietetics in college.

Those knowing Vernette all find her a very friendly person of the linguistic type.

Strange As It Seems
 Hired and Margie are wearing their class pins.

Walton Bragg was not elected King of the May.

John Padgett and Leon Spooner have ceased telling falsehoods.

Larkin found his shoe behind the door in the agriculture room.

Allice Willis attended Senior play phonics as well as Rupert Moore.

Margaret Hooker didn't attend the dance in Pahokee Tuesday night.

The rough-like stain on Stewart's collar was from a tie.

JUNIOR CLASS
 Dot Hooker.

Marion Case, a member of the Junior Class, is going to West Palm Beach as soon as six weeks tests are over. We wish Marion very much and hope she will be able to join our Senior Class next fall.

Mary Louise Honshel spent Monday in Miami.

Allice Willis was absent from our class last week on account of illness.

Willard Aron, Julian Chandler, Bill Crews, Larkin, and Mary Louise Honshel, Beth Dane and Dorothy Howell attended the barbeque banquet Friday morning.

Annie Merle Maloy visited our class Monday morning.

Allice Willis spent the day in LaBelle Sunday.

SOPHOMORES
 We are glad to have our teacher, Mr. Chatter, back with us, following the recent death of one of his family.

Mrs. Spear submitted Monday during the absence of Mr. Chatter. The Sophomores have charge of the chapel program this week and are hoping everyone will enjoy it. The class, as a whole, is sorry to hear that one of their most popular members, Ruth Honshel, is going to leave them. She is making her home in Florida City.

CANAL POINT SCHOOL

FRESHMEN
 Frances Howell.

The Freshmen voted for May King and queen last Wednesday. Marie Cochran and Leon Spooner were selected by the Freshmen. Those absent this past week were Virginia Honshel and Paul Poole.

SPORTS
 Gennette.

The sport of this week seemed to be "politicking" for the May queen and king. Of course all of the candidates couldn't win, but Bragg didn't win, as we expected.

During gym period on Monday, a few (16) of the girls played diamond ball. The girls on Lucile Herring's side consisted of "Pete" Thompson and Ethel Vinson. Getha Smith's side consisted of Beth Dane and Jewel Vinson.

When the one-knocked, Betty, she couldn't make more than a home run, so we "just didn't notice it."

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop attended the F. S. C. W. annual banquet in West Palm Beach Thursday evening.

Margie Cochran spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.

Edith Willis attended a picnic in LaBelle Sunday.

Bill Howell spent Sunday in Oklawaha.

Elizabeth and Vernette Stuckey spent Saturday in West Palm Beach visiting friends.

Louper Houston, Odel Pugh and George Crawford spent Saturday in West Palm Beach getting police uniforms.

Margaret Hooker.
 Work! Seniors! Work!

One can rightfully say that any student in the graduating class of Pahokee high school has spring fever.

Portion of its members have been laboring diligently for the past four weeks on the Senior Class play that will be presented Thursday night. Eight others have been working to secure advertisements for places of business for the play programs. The others have been selling tickets for the play.

Some of the students are making up their credits from non-credited courses, others are studying for six subjects in order that they may be able to march proudly up to the front of the auditorium June 5 and receive their diplomas.

BANK OF PAHOKEE

An Everglades Institution

Liberal and Progressive

Safe and Conservative

Every possible Accommodation extended to Customers

ACCOUNTS SOLICITED

PAHOKEE

Children christened at the Sunday morning service at the First Methodist church, conducted by Rev. H. F. Tolle were Rosalie Tolle, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Joe A. Tolle, Lenny Noble Stuckey, son of Mrs. and Mrs. W. S. Stuckey, and Charles Dickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Dickson, Jr.

There will be a benefit bridge party given Thursday evening at the Pahokee Woman's Club, sponsored by the O. E. S. Chapter No. 184.

William Borscock of Miami and Mr. Byron Shinnick of Lake Worth were business visitors in Pahokee Saturday.

Mrs. E. Elliott and Mrs. John Kirk are spending this week in Lakeland and Tampa visiting relatives and friends.

Thomas Elliott and Devane Larimore enjoyed a fishing trip on the Kissimmee river Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. E. Guthrie suffered a broken shoulder Wednesday from a fall, and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cross of Canal Point have moved into one of the Rutledge Houses here in Pahokee.

Mrs. Lorena and Lucille Reeves, Joe Thompson, Clifford Horn, Pete Nettles and Earl Reeves enjoyed a theatre party in West Palm Beach Sunday.

Robert Alderman has returned from Sarasota, where he visited his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mills have moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Supp. Miss Jewel Vinson will be sent as a delegate from the Senior B. Y. Y. to the Hollywood assembly in May.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Poole and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ball attended a base ball game in Clewiston Sunday afternoon.

Miss Vera Flinders of Brighton is the house guest of Miss Glyn Humphries this week.

Miss Ortha Thompson spent Saturday in Fort Pierce.

Miss Eastman of West Palm Beach spent Tuesday in Pahokee receiving instructions to those owning electric stoves.

Professor Bert L. Chaffer was called to Longwood last Saturday by the death of his grandmother, who would have been one hundred and one years old in September.

W. F. McClain and Douglas Mock spent Sunday in West Palm Beach.

E. A. Rodgers, salesman for Churchwell Wholesale Company at Jacksonville, spent Monday in Pahokee.

Mrs. Bill Powell of Clewiston is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crosby this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Tolle left Monday for their home in Lake Wales, after conducting a revival meeting here at the First Methodist church.

rhmore, accompanied by Jimmy Taylor, motored to Punta Gorda, Monday.

H. T. Williams and Thurman Knight made a business trip to Tampa Saturday.

Muri Griffin of Lake Worth is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Arrington, this week.

There was a special call Tuesday afternoon for the Boy Scouts to work on their Scout hut.

Mrs. Carolyn Clutter of Lake Worth was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Colson Monday evening.

Mrs. A. Kaltenbrunner gave a birthday dinner Tuesday evening honoring her husband.

Thurman Knight has returned from Sarasota, where he spent several days on business.

Dr. D. Brockway made a business trip to West Palm Beach Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Shive made a business trip to West Palm Beach Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Tolle and children and the Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Tolle were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Simonson Friday evening and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fields Saturday evening.

J. W. Helms and son Joe and William Chandler spent Friday in Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Harlar and daughter Ima of Portsmouth, Va., visited their son-in-law, W. P. Maxwell, last week, who is ill at the home of his brother, James Maxwell.

Mrs. Wilda Morgan and Mrs. B. J. Barwick made a business trip to West Palm Beach Saturday.

John W. Martin of Tallahassee, former governor, who is again seeking the state executive post, was here Saturday at the Board Festival grounds. He was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. Elliott Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Rodgers spent the week end in West Palm Beach, where the Rev. Rodgers had charge of the Sunday morning and evening services at the First Baptist church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. H. Bolton.

F. A. McKinzie of Lakeland was a business visitor in Pahokee Friday. His fragile is in use on the Pelican bay diving job.

Mrs. E. A. Bass and little daughter Beverly are visiting her sister, Mrs. Byron Simonson, in West Palm Beach this week.

H. G. McArthur was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. McLary Monday.

Mrs. Roy Shaw and little daughter of Arkansas visited friends in Pahokee over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Stuckey made a business trip to West Palm Beach Monday.

Thomas Elliott and Devane Larimore, accompanied by Jimmy Taylor, motored to Punta Gorda, Monday.

H. T. Williams and Thurman Knight made a business trip to Tampa Saturday.

Muri Griffin of Lake Worth is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Arrington, this week.

There was a special call Tuesday afternoon for the Boy Scouts to work on their Scout hut.

Mrs. Carolyn Clutter of Lake Worth was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Colson Monday evening.

AT THE THEATRE

Will Rogers Room for President Is Started, But Humorous Refuses To Take Movement Seriously

Every four years a well organized boom to place Will Rogers humorist and comedian in the White House is started. Rogers himself refuses to take the movement seriously, but so far as is known, he has never definitely registered approval of the idea. His only comment, when asked point-blank if he would be a candidate, was "I would be a candidate."

Rogers was first nominated for president four years ago by a national known humorous magazine. He entered into the spirit of the affair, and wrote the platform and contributed numerous wisecracks to the campaign. But in the last four years many persons have begun to consider such a plan seriously. Rogers' keen perception, his faculty of going right to the heart of a problem and solving it almost offhand, has made those who wonder whether he wouldn't be an ideal national candidate.

The Metro studios.

Buster Keaton has the title role and further hilarity is guaranteed by the presence of the inimitable Jimmie (Schonroze) Durante in a characterization reputed to be even funnier than that of his "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," and the riotous Polly Moran as his consort. This Parisian bedroom farce concerns a bungling plumber who comes to a lady's apartment to fix a leaky pipe but remains to repair her broken heart. Comedy of "a rare order is entailed in a unique contract made by the plumber and the lady of the house in which the former promises to protect her from the unwelcome advances of an impetuous lover and gets into all sorts of mad scrapes in the process of doing so. A highlight of these adventures is a riotous dance scene which starts out seriously enough but due to Keaton's amateur knowledge of dancing tactics ends up in what is believed to be one of the most side-splitting fights yet depicted on the screen.

The comedian's experiences in a gambling casino, his masquerade as a doctor when caught in a compromising position in the heroine's bedroom and his hilarious attempts to get rid of a small but

Hollywood Citizen recently discussed the Rogers' presidential boom editorially, wondering if we could spare the great comedian for so much as a job as president. The editorial reads, in part:

"We don't know how this campaign for Will Rogers for president strikes the humorist, but it strikes us as very interesting. The first question of Rogers, as president, wouldn't need to give up his sense of humor but he would have to give up his job of entertaining the public with his humor. And it's a question whether he isn't worth more to the country in his present capacity than as president."

Rogers has just completed his latest starring production, "Business and Pleasure," which will be seen and heard Sunday and Monday at the Prince Theatre. It was adapted from the best selling novel, "The Photo-act," by Booth Tarkington.

"The Passionate Plumber" "The Passionate Plumber" brings a group of funsters to the Prince Theatre starting Tuesday, in what is said to be the spiciest and most amusing comedy yet turned out by the Metro studios.

Buster Keaton has the title role and further hilarity is guaranteed by the presence of the inimitable Jimmie (Schonroze) Durante in a characterization reputed to be even funnier than that of his "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," and the riotous Polly Moran as his consort. This Parisian bedroom farce concerns a bungling plumber who comes to a lady's apartment to fix a leaky pipe but remains to repair her broken heart. Comedy of "a rare order is entailed in a unique contract made by the plumber and the lady of the house in which the former promises to protect her from the unwelcome advances of an impetuous lover and gets into all sorts of mad scrapes in the process of doing so. A highlight of these adventures is a riotous dance scene which starts out seriously enough but due to Keaton's amateur knowledge of dancing tactics ends up in what is believed to be one of the most side-splitting fights yet depicted on the screen.

The comedian's experiences in a gambling casino, his masquerade as a doctor when caught in a compromising position in the heroine's bedroom and his hilarious attempts to get rid of a small but

Hollywood Citizen recently discussed the Rogers' presidential boom editorially, wondering if we could spare the great comedian for so much as a job as president. The editorial reads, in part:

"We don't know how this campaign for Will Rogers for president strikes the humorist, but it strikes us as very interesting. The first question of Rogers, as president, wouldn't need to give up his sense of humor but he would have to give up his job of entertaining the public with his humor. And it's a question whether he isn't worth more to the country in his present capacity than as president."

Rogers has just completed his latest starring production, "Business and Pleasure," which will be seen and heard Sunday and Monday at the Prince Theatre. It was adapted from the best selling novel, "The Photo-act," by Booth Tarkington.

"The Passionate Plumber" "The Passionate Plumber" brings a group of funsters to the Prince Theatre starting Tuesday, in what is said to be the spiciest and most amusing comedy yet turned out by the Metro studios.

Buster Keaton has the title role and further hilarity is guaranteed by the presence of the inimitable Jimmie (Schonroze) Durante in a characterization reputed to be even funnier than that of his "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," and the riotous Polly Moran as his consort. This Parisian bedroom farce concerns a bungling plumber who comes to a lady's apartment to fix a leaky pipe but remains to repair her broken heart. Comedy of "a rare order is entailed in a unique contract made by the plumber and the lady of the house in which the former promises to protect her from the unwelcome advances of an impetuous lover and gets into all sorts of mad scrapes in the process of doing so. A highlight of these adventures is a riotous dance scene which starts out seriously enough but due to Keaton's amateur knowledge of dancing tactics ends up in what is believed to be one of the most side-splitting fights yet depicted on the screen.

The comedian's experiences in a gambling casino, his masquerade as a doctor when caught in a compromising position in the heroine's bedroom and his hilarious attempts to get rid of a small but

Hollywood Citizen recently discussed the Rogers' presidential boom editorially, wondering if we could spare the great comedian for so much as a job as president. The editorial reads, in part:

"We don't know how this campaign for Will Rogers for president strikes the humorist, but it strikes us as very interesting. The first question of Rogers, as president, wouldn't need to give up his sense of humor but he would have to give up his job of entertaining the public with his humor. And it's a question whether he isn't worth more to the country in his present capacity than as president."

Rogers has just completed his latest starring production, "Business and Pleasure," which will be seen and heard Sunday and Monday at the Prince Theatre. It was adapted from the best selling novel, "The Photo-act," by Booth Tarkington.

the Metro studios.

Buster Keaton has the title role and further hilarity is guaranteed by the presence of the inimitable Jimmie (Schonroze) Durante in a characterization reputed to be even funnier than that of his "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," and the riotous Polly Moran as his consort. This Parisian bedroom farce concerns a bungling plumber who comes to a lady's apartment to fix a leaky pipe but remains to repair her broken heart. Comedy of "a rare order is entailed in a unique contract made by the plumber and the lady of the house in which the former promises to protect her from the unwelcome advances of an impetuous lover and gets into all sorts of mad scrapes in the process of doing so. A highlight of these adventures is a riotous dance scene which starts out seriously enough but due to Keaton's amateur knowledge of dancing tactics ends up in what is believed to be one of the most side-splitting fights yet depicted on the screen.

The comedian's experiences in a gambling casino, his masquerade as a doctor when caught in a compromising position in the heroine's bedroom and his hilarious attempts to get rid of a small but

Hollywood Citizen recently discussed the Rogers' presidential boom editorially, wondering if we could spare the great comedian for so much as a job as president. The editorial reads, in part:

"We don't know how this campaign for Will Rogers for president strikes the humorist, but it strikes us as very interesting. The first question of Rogers, as president, wouldn't need to give up his sense of humor but he would have to give up his job of entertaining the public with his humor. And it's a question whether he isn't worth more to the country in his present capacity than as president."

Rogers has just completed his latest starring production, "Business and Pleasure," which will be seen and heard Sunday and Monday at the Prince Theatre. It was adapted from the best selling novel, "The Photo-act," by Booth Tarkington.

"The Passionate Plumber" "The Passionate Plumber" brings a group of funsters to the Prince Theatre starting Tuesday, in what is said to be the spiciest and most amusing comedy yet turned out by the Metro studios.

Buster Keaton has the title role and further hilarity is guaranteed by the presence of the inimitable Jimmie (Schonroze) Durante in a characterization reputed to be even funnier than that of his "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," and the riotous Polly Moran as his consort. This Parisian bedroom farce concerns a bungling plumber who comes to a lady's apartment to fix a leaky pipe but remains to repair her broken heart. Comedy of "a rare order is entailed in a unique contract made by the plumber and the lady of the house in which the former promises to protect her from the unwelcome advances of an impetuous lover and gets into all sorts of mad scrapes in the process of doing so. A highlight of these adventures is a riotous dance scene which starts out seriously enough but due to Keaton's amateur knowledge of dancing tactics ends up in what is believed to be one of the most side-splitting fights yet depicted on the screen.

The comedian's experiences in a gambling casino, his masquerade as a doctor when caught in a compromising position in the heroine's bedroom and his hilarious attempts to get rid of a small but

Hollywood Citizen recently discussed the Rogers' presidential boom editorially, wondering if we could spare the great comedian for so much as a job as president. The editorial reads, in part:

"We don't know how this campaign for Will Rogers for president strikes the humorist, but it strikes us as very interesting. The first question of Rogers, as president, wouldn't need to give up his sense of humor but he would have to give up his job of entertaining the public with his humor. And it's a question whether he isn't worth more to the country in his present capacity than as president."

Rogers has just completed his latest starring production, "Business and Pleasure," which will be seen and heard Sunday and Monday at the Prince Theatre. It was adapted from the best selling novel, "The Photo-act," by Booth Tarkington.

"The Passionate Plumber" "The Passionate Plumber" brings a group of funsters to the Prince Theatre starting Tuesday, in what is said to be the spiciest and most amusing comedy yet turned out by the Metro studios.

Buster Keaton has the title role and further hilarity is guaranteed by the presence of the inimitable Jimmie (Schonroze) Durante in a characterization reputed to be even funnier than that of his "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," and the riotous Polly Moran as his consort. This Parisian bedroom farce concerns a bungling plumber who comes to a lady's apartment to fix a leaky pipe but remains to repair her broken heart. Comedy of "a rare order is entailed in a unique contract made by the plumber and the lady of the house in which the former promises to protect her from the unwelcome advances of an impetuous lover and gets into all sorts of mad scrapes in the process of doing so. A highlight of these adventures is a riotous dance scene which starts out seriously enough but due to Keaton's amateur knowledge of dancing tactics ends up in what is believed to be one of the most side-splitting fights yet depicted on the screen.

The comedian's experiences in a gambling casino, his masquerade as a doctor when caught in a compromising position in the heroine's bedroom and his hilarious attempts to get rid of a small but

Hollywood Citizen recently discussed the Rogers' presidential boom editorially, wondering if we could spare the great comedian for so much as a job as president. The editorial reads, in part:

"We don't know how this campaign for Will Rogers for president strikes the humorist, but it strikes us as very interesting. The first question of Rogers, as president, wouldn't need to give up his sense of humor but he would have to give up his job of entertaining the public with his humor. And it's a question whether he isn't worth more to the country in his present capacity than as president."

Rogers has just completed his latest starring production, "Business and Pleasure," which will be seen and heard Sunday and Monday at the Prince Theatre. It was adapted from the best selling novel, "The Photo-act," by Booth Tarkington.

"The Passionate Plumber" "The Passionate Plumber" brings a group of funsters to the Prince Theatre starting Tuesday, in what is said to be the spiciest and most amusing comedy yet turned out by the Metro studios.

Buster Keaton has the title role and further hilarity is guaranteed by the presence of the inimitable Jimmie (Schonroze) Durante in a characterization reputed to be even funnier than that of his "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," and the riotous Polly Moran as his consort. This Parisian bedroom farce concerns a bungling plumber who comes to a lady's apartment to fix a leaky pipe but remains to repair her broken heart. Comedy of "a rare order is entailed in a unique contract made by the plumber and the lady of the house in which the former promises to protect her from the unwelcome advances of an impetuous lover and gets into all sorts of mad scrapes in the process of doing so. A highlight of these adventures is a riotous dance scene which starts out seriously enough but due to Keaton's amateur knowledge of dancing tactics ends up in what is believed to be one of the most side-splitting fights yet depicted on the screen.

The comedian's experiences in a gambling casino, his masquerade as a doctor when caught in a compromising position in the heroine's bedroom and his hilarious attempts to get rid of a small but

Hollywood Citizen recently discussed the Rogers' presidential boom editorially, wondering if we could spare the great comedian for so much as a job as president. The editorial reads, in part:

Looming larger every day as the GREAT AMERICAN VALUE

because it offers such fine-car features as Free Wheeling, Syncro-Mesh gear-shifting, bodies by Fisher and multi-cylinder smoothness at these new low prices

(The Chevrolet line consists of 14 models, each available for immediate delivery)

REDUCED PRICES EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 1932
ROADSTER . . .	'445	COACH . . .	'495
SPORT ROADSTER . . .	'485	DE LUXE COUPE . . .	'510
STANDARD COUPE . . .	'490	DE LUXE COACH . . .	'515
'S-WINDOW COUPE . . .	'490	SPORT COUPE . . .	'535
PHAEON . . .	'495	5-PASS. COUPE . . .	'575
		CABRIOLET . . .	'595
		SEDAN . . .	'590
		SPECIAL SEDAN . . .	'615
		LANDAU PHAEON . . .	'625

All prices f. o. b. Flint, Michigan. Special equipment extra.

NOTE: Above models standard with wire wheels. Six wire wheels and fender wells on all models $15.00 (not additional). Low delivery rates on easy G.M.A.C. terms. Chevrolet Motor Co., Detroit, Michigan, Division of General Motors.

NEW CHEVROLET SIX

SEE YOUR DEALER BELOW

EVERGLADES CHEVROLET COMPANY, INC. PAHOKEE, FLORIDA

CALL FOR

BREAD

Baked in the Glades

What used to be known as "East Beach Bakery" is under new management. Support home industry—get good bread at fair prices—you lose nothing but you gain in every way.

ROLLS EVERY AFTERNOON

(EXCEPT SATURDAY)

PIES — CAKES — COOKIES — A FULL LINE

EVERGLADES BAKERY

PAHOKEE

"Secret Service," starring Richard Dix, at Prince Theatre, Saturday.

THE EVERGLADES NEWS

Founded March 11, 1924.
Entered at the Post Office at Canal Point, Fla., as second class matter.
Published Each Friday.
Subscription Price $2.50 A YEAR
HOWARD SHARP, Publisher

PEOPLE WE KNOW

*W. J. Marsh, Jr., once in business in Canal Point, is now living at Vero Beach, to which place he was transferred from Okeechobee as manager of one of the Evans Food Stores.

Mrs. Theodore N. Filly, who lived in Canal Point while her husband was pastor of the M. E. church, has returned to her home in Herndon, Va., from Washington, where she stayed for several months. Mrs. Filly remembers the Everglades kindly and always sends a pleasant word to her old friends here.

Stafford Caldwell

CANDIDATE FOR Governor

Will Address the Voters

Saturday, April 30

BELLE GLADE

10:30 a. m.

PAHOKEE

3 p. m.

OKEECHOBEE

8 p. m.

Be Sure and Hear Him

INDIANTOWN

Our genial restaurant man, O. D. Hattaway, made a business trip to Okeechobee Saturday.

The usual contingent of shoppers visited Stuart Saturday.

We have had one fairly good rain recently, in six months, and it only wet the ground two inches. Since then, only fair weather. Mr. Hoover, we are bone dry, and we don't like it, either—but probably by election time, if the drought breaks, we will be dripping wet, and we won't like that either.

Mr. Miller, the largest truck farmer hereabouts, who is both a scientific and practical grower, has been putting up, for a couple of weeks, a fine crop of tomatoes. They were grown under arched irrigation on the 300-acre development made by the Land Company of Florida a few years ago. He is using lug boxes. He has a special favorably competition for the disposal of all the stuff he raises, and therefore stands less chance of losing out, even if he doesn't make much profit at times, than the ordinary grower.

Mr. Granham, a hustling grower from Alabama, also has in a crop on the same land, for the second year. He says he has never done worse so far, than break even, which is often better than usual.

The Byers family is packing Mr. Miller's tomatoes. They have been active workers in the trucking business for nearly ten years at Indiantown.

Mr. Day is another traveler who has been with us for several seasons, persevering in spite of the many drawbacks truckers have experienced in the last few years.

Mrs. E. Worth, the mother of Miss E. Worth, returned to her home in Plant City some time ago, after a visit to her relatives here.

Bradley Gillispie made trips to West Palm Beach a couple of days ago with boxes of citrus fruit.

Mrs. Abe Skelton, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hattaway, returned to her home in Moore Haven Saturday. Her husband is employed in government drainage work near there.

Candidates have started to circulating around, but there is generally a far-away look in a voter's eye when they buttonhole him. People are studying about things nearer home than politics, here lately—where grins are coming from.

Fires, smoke, winds, dust.

drouth; the cycle, repeats itself, but then as there is no bitter without its sweet, no mosquitoes, house flies or horseflies so far to pester people and stock.

Douglas Advertiser Everglades' Beans

H. L. Douglass of Belle Glade is doing his part in making known to the world the fact that the upper Everglades has beans and is trying to get the highest possible price.

In the national produce trade journal, The Packer, he advertises: "Beans—Fifty cars of Bountiful for sale. Packed in bushel hampers. Movement starts May 1st.—H. L. Douglass, Belle Glade, Fla."

PROHIBITIONISTS ARE ORGANIZING

A convention of the Allied Prohibition forces was formed and a meeting at the court house in West Palm Beach Friday night, attended by prohibitionists from all over the county.

Fred E. Britton, chairman of the societies supporting prohibition, was elected chairman of the convention and Will R. Smith, of Lake Worth, secretary. R. E. Clayton, Palm Beach, was made state committeeman.

Formation of a county committee was started. In its completed form this committee will have representatives from each precinct in the county.

Present members of the committee are: Benjamin Clayton, Palm Beach; Mrs. V. R. Daugherty, West Palm Beach; M. D. Harty, South Bay; E. M. Lemon, Belle Glade; Mrs. L. W. Armstrong, Pahokee; L. L. Knight, Canal Point; E. T. Wilcox, Boynton; the Rev. T. E. O'Steen, Delray Beach; the Rev. W. J. Minges, Mrs. S. H. Kidd and J. E. Wein, West Palm Beach.

ENGINEERS ENTERTAIN
Federal engineers of the Indiantown and LaBelle districts and their families were entertained at a chicken pilau and dance. The pilau was held in the open and the private dance at the Clewiston—Jan. Government engineers of the Clewiston office were hosts for the gathering.

Richard Dix at his best in "Secret Service" at Prince Theatre, Saturday only.

Fine Flag Is Given By Gold Star Mother

Mrs. J. O. Mansfield has donated to East Beach post No. 50, American Legion, a flag 6x12 feet that was sent to her by the War Department after her return from a trip to France with a party of gold star mothers from Florida.

The post has accepted the flag with thanks and will use it at the new hall on the grounds of the Pahokee Bean Festival.

Mrs. Mansfield is the only gold star mother in the upper Glades. Her sons Perry and Fred went Bristol channel during the world war. The story of her trip to the battlefields of France, as recorded in a diary, was printed in The Everglades News a few months ago.

down with the U. S. S. Tampa in Rogers, Rajah of Laughter! See Will Rogers in "Business and Pleasure" at Prince Theatre, Sunday and Monday.

Richard Dix at his best in "Secret Service" at Prince Theatre, Saturday only.

PRICES REDUCED ON COWPEAS, VELVET BEANS AND CORN

VELVET BEANS

	Per Bu.
90 Day Speckled	1.50
Oseola	2.25
Bush	2.50
COWPEAS
Whippoorwill	1.75
Iron	1.85
Brabham	2.05

Larger quantity prices quoted on request

This is your opportunity to protect and rebuild your soil through the summer at the lowest price in years.

THE KILGORE SEED COMPANY

HOME OF BRED-RITE SEEDS
CANAL POINT-PAHOKEE BELLE GLADE
Phone No. 3201 Phone No. 12

Now! Buy a Chevrolet

Our recent price reduction continues the Chevrolet as the outstanding American value.

PHONE 2451

EVERGLADES CHEVROLET CO., Inc.

FRANK COLSON, Manager

PAHOKEE

DRY CLEANING LAUNDRY

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE BEST REEDER'S

of West Palm Beach
EVERGLADES SPECIAL

EVERY

Monday :: Thursday :: Saturday

Just Arrived GORGEOUS DRESSES

For the Graduating
Miss

Priced in Two Groups

$10.

and $15.

These dresses worth double their price; are of the latest style workmanship selected from the Best manufacturers . . . materials consist of lace, satin, crepes and taffetas . . . with or without jackets . . . in white, pink, yellow, pale blue and new green

A New Shipment of Sport Dresses has just Arrived For Your Graduation Wardrobe

HARRY A. LEE Inc.

226 CLEMATIS STREET

IS YOUR WISHBONE

STOP WISHING

AND START WORKING FOR IT MEANS DOLLARS TO YOU

WHERE YOUR BACKBONE SHOULD BE?

He who hesitates is lost, and those who spend their time WISHING for the good things of life, are in the same boat. THE EVERGLADES NEWS "WEEKLY PAYROLL" Subscription Campaign is now entering the LAST half of the race. Those workers who have more WISHBONE than BACKBONE will be the ones found trailing in the dust when the final post has been reached. Don't just be an "ALSO RAN." 'Tis true that each worker in the race cannot win the FIRST AWARD, but the one who does WIN it will be the one with the greatest amount of BACKBONE. IT IS BETTER TO GO DOWN FIGHTING THAN TO BE CALLED A QUITTER. Let "CONSTANT WORK" be your slogan and you will surely be among the winners May 14th.

Will Your Award Be the Auto or Just a Small Cash Bonus?

WHERE WILL YOUR NAME BE

WHEN WE ANNOUNCE THE WINNERS MAY 14th?

